Terms and conditions

Birmingham City University is launching a competition via Twitter and Instagram that will require entrants to submit an original photograph for a chance to win High Street Shopping Vouchers.

One winner shall receive £100 worth of Love2shop High Street Vouchers. All entrants will have their submitted work featured on Birmingham City University websites/literature/social media channels.

How to Enter

Entrants must take a photograph of themselves taking part in activity mentioned on the #BringOnBCU bingo card during Welcome Week, starting on Saturday 16 September 2017. They must post their photo on Twitter or Instagram using the hashtag #BringOnBCU by midnight on Sunday 1 October 2017.

These activities are:

1. Get a selfie with the Birmingham Bull
2. Try an independent restaurant or bar
3. Play crazy golf at Cannon Hill Park
4. Watch a live performance at Birmingham Weekender, 22-24 Sep
5. Take a perfect skyline photo from the top of Curzon Building
6. Take a trip to the Bullring with your new NUS card!
7. Get lost...probably on a stroll to Digbeth to try out the quirky cafes and see the street art
8. Go to the Welcome Fair and get some free stuff
9. Join a society and try out a new hobby
10. Cook a meal with your new flatmates or family
11. Try food from a country you have never had before
12. See a Midlands derby - Aston Villa v Nottingham Forest on Sat 23 Sep
13. Get kitted out in fancy dress for a night out
14. Ask everyone you meet: Name? Hometown? Course?

15. See a celeb DJ at a Student Union event

16. Be at one with nature at Botanical Gardens or the Wildlife Conservation Park

Competition Rules for Entrants

Entrants can submit as many photos as they like as entries to the competition on each of the two specified social media platforms, however only one photograph will be chosen as the winner.

The competition is open to individuals based in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

The entrants grant permission for Birmingham City University to use their entry and specifically the photograph and caption either collectively or individually for the purpose of organising and/or managing the competition, for announcing the winner of the competition and for general marketing purposes.

Entrants must be 16 or over.

Birmingham City University reserves the right to disqualify any entrant and/or winner in their absolute discretion for any reason and without notice.

Entrants are permitted to take photographs in any part of the Birmingham City University campuses at City Centre or City South.

Entrants are responsible for ensuring they have permission to take photographs in any other area of Birmingham City Centre.

Entrants are permitted to use filters on submitted images, however the photographs must be their own original images.

Winning Entrants

One photograph will be chosen by an independent panel across both social media platforms (Twitter and Instagram) to win £100 in High Street Vouchers. The winner will be announced on Monday 2 October 2017. Winners will be contacted via the social media channel by which they submitted their entry.

The prize is as stated and no alternative will be offered. The decision of Birmingham City University will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

The winners must be able to accept the prize within 14 days of being informed of a winning entry and if the entrant fails to do so the prize will lapse. In such circumstances the winner will not be entitled to any other form of payment in cash or in kind from Birmingham City University.

These competition rules and this competition are governed by English law. We reserve the right to remove any entry without prior notice or warning and amend the competition end date and rules at any time.
