

BSc (Hons) Dimensions in Health Care: Infection Prevention and Control (module)

Faculty of Health

COURSE FACTS

Duration	One academic year
Location	City South Campus, Edgbaston
Cost	Refer to contact for cost
Booking details	Please contact Shirley Kirnon for further information and booking: T: 0121 331 6140 E: shirley.kirnon@bcu.ac.uk www.bcu.ac.uk/healthcpd

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

This module is suitable for any health or social practitioner who wants to raise their awareness of Infection Prevention and Control principles and issues in order to improve their clinical practice respectively.

COURSE OVERVIEW AND BENEFITS

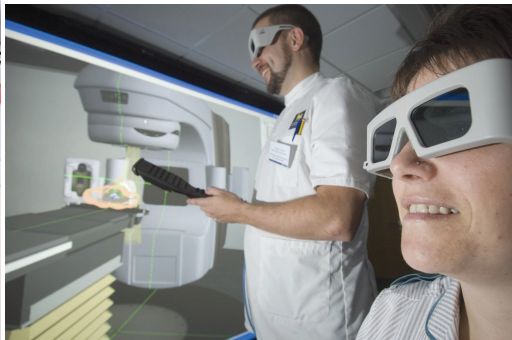

This is a taught academic module that aims to improve the awareness, understanding and clinical practice of health and social care practitioners in the field of infection prevention and control. The learner's knowledge and understanding will be enhanced through the examination and sharing of clinical experience underpinned by relevant legislative and national evidence-based guidance relating to the field of Infection Prevention and Control and reduction of Healthcare Associated Infection.

MORE INFORMATION

Shirley Kirnon
T: 0121 331 6140
E: shirley.kirnon@bcu.ac.uk

www.bcu.ac.uk/healthcpd

Visit www.bcu.ac.uk/maps to download directions and street map

