

Debridement Techniques in Practice Workshops

These ongoing events will be primarily hands on experience working under direct supervision of expert practitioners.

Thursday 1 December 2016, 8.45am – 4.30pm
Seacole Building, City South Campus, B15 3TN

Sessions focused on

- Debridement/debulking of full thickness necrosis.
- Removal of wound debris and biofilm using curette.
- Removal of wound debris using different debridement tools and techniques.

Feedback from previous courses

100 per cent said it was excellent or very good.

Who should attend

Practitioners from the field of wound healing/management seeking to develop their practical skills and understanding of the most advanced clinical practice.

Cost: £150

Contact: Claire Pickerill at cpd@bcu.ac.uk or T: 0121 300 4282