From September 2020, the BCU School of Education and Social Work is launching a fully funded and self-directed opportunity for partner schools and colleges to enhance the professional development of their in-school mentoring.

The course will provide mentors with:

- Guided critical reflection on the role of professional and purposeful mentoring in an educational context
- Opportunities to reflect on the impact of their practice using a BCU adaptation of the DfE Standards for Mentoring
- Insight into research informed practice across phases and subjects related to their context
- 20 credits towards a BCU Masters Degree

- Two dates for enrollment aligned to BCU ITE mentor training (September and January)
- All resources provided online through BCU Moodle portal
  - Access to BCU libraries and academic support
  - Ongoing online discussion forums with BCU tutors

Enrollment information will be published in September 2020 on pages related to your school phase at: <https://www.bcu.ac.uk/education-and-social-work/partnerships-and-collaborations>
