

Crackhead Craig (Villanelle)
By James Kennedy

Early Dawning
Head fuzzy but still smiling and fine
5 in the morning

Skin bruised and veins torn in
Scum glistening on his lips, salty brine
Early dawning

For he's been scoring
His remedy his poison he's gonna have a good time
5 in the morning

No work for him as work's boring
Rather get the alum can, fix up the mainline
Early dawning

Huddled up in sleeping bags when the rain's pouring
Saturated and dazed, weather beaten and the grime
5 in the morning

Smacked out cracked out the security get the law in Apparently this enjoyment is a prosecutable crime
Early dawning
5 in the morning
