6	Course Description
	Want to study a Masters in Legal Practice? This course is specifically designed to provide the final part of the vocational stage of training towards the qualification as a solicitor in England and Wales. The Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA) is the professional body who authorise the initial validation, revalidation and ongoing monitoring and periodic review of such courses. This course covers all SRA required modules for Stage 1 and a range of Stage 2 Vocational Elective modules. You will develop the core cognitive, professional and transferable skills necessary to succeed in the legal workplace. At the end of Stage 2 (Semester 2) you will start the academic stage of this course in Semester 3. You will complete a research module followed by either a dissertation, a live project or a placement. Following successful completion of this course you will be eligible to proceed to the next vocational stage of training by completing a 2 year Training Contract with an employer in legal practice. Our first-class facilities include two mock courtrooms and a comprehensive law library (with many resources accessible online). There are extensive opportunities available with a variety of agencies throughout Birmingham and our Law Clinic. The LPC is taught by a team of professional staff with extensive practice experience and a friendly, open door policy giving you all the support you will need.

10 Entry Requirements
The admission requirements for this course are stated on the course page of the BCU website at https://www.bcu.ac.uk/.

11a Course Learning Outcomes
1	Research and apply critical knowledge of the law and legal practice accurately and effectively.
2	Identify: the client's objectives and different means of achieving those objectives and be aware of; the financial, commercial and personal priorities and constraints to be taken into account; the costs, benefits and risks involved in transaction or courses of action; the tasks required to advance transactions or matter; how the rules of professional conduct may impact and be able to apply them in context.
3	Demonstrate knowledge, understanding and skills in the areas of: Professional Conduct and Regulation; the core practice areas of Business law and Practice, Property Law and Practice, Litigation and the areas of wills and administration of estates and taxation; the Course skills of Practical Legal Research (PLR), Writing, Drafting, Interviewing and Advising and Advocacy. Students should be able to transfer skills learnt in one context to another; the three areas covered by their Electives.
4	Employ strategic transferable skills to underpin: advising clients; interacting with professional colleagues; continuing professional development and practice and to develop a range of other pervasive skills, including: conducting electronic research and appropriate use of the internet to locate relevant information, producing work which is properly referenced and presented and formatted using standard software packages, working co-operatively, ethically and professionally with others.
5	Develop enhanced research and reflective skills; gain a sophisticated level of knowledge and critical awareness of a chosen area of legal practice; and have the opportunity to demonstrate originality in tackling and solving problems, acting autonomously in planning and implementing tasks, advancing your own knowledge and understanding and the independent learning required for continuing professional development through studying the Masters element of the course.

11b	Course Aims

13 Overall Student Workload and Balance of Assessment

Overall student workload consists of class contact hours, independent learning and assessment activity, with each credit taken equating to a total study time of around 10 hours. While actual contact hours may depend on the optional modules selected, the following information gives an indication of how much time students will need to allocate to different activities at each level of the course.

- Scheduled Learning includes lectures, practical classes and workshops, contact time specified in timetable
- Directed Learning includes placements, work-based learning, external visits, on-line activity, Graduate+, peer learning
- Private Study includes preparation for exams

The balance of assessment by mode of assessment (e.g. coursework, exam and in-person) depends to some extent on the optional modules chosen by students. The approximate percentage of the course assessed by coursework, exam and in-person is shown below.

Workload

% time spent in timetabled teaching and learning activity

Activity	Number of Hours
Scheduled Learning	358
Directed Learning	157
Private Study	1285
Total Hours	1800

Balance of Assessment

Assessment Mode	Percentage
Coursework	23%
Exam	65%
In-Person	12%
