

We know you may be feeling worried about your finances and wondering how you will pay your tuition fees, living expenses and all the costs associated with going to university. You may be put off by terms like 'loan' and the associated 'debt' that goes with being a student.

Our handy budget planner is designed to give you a tool to support and guide you through planning and managing your finances. Be that money from Student Finance or a part time job, or outgoings on direct debits and weekend splurges when you're out and about.

Talk of student debt and loans goes hand-in-hand with becoming a uni student. However, it isn't all bad. Here's a few financial positives to being a student to look out for.

STUDY INCENTIVES

Nearly all universities offer an array of 'scholarships' and 'incentives'. These are schemes that give you additional financial support for your studies. However unlike student finance these are payments that you don't have to repay!

If you apply to BCU and secure results in the qualifications you are studying that either match or better our entry requirements, you could be eligible for a £1,000 scholarship for 2021 entry, made up of £850 cash and £150 credit to spend in our online shop. We give all new home and EU undergraduates £150 worth of credit to spend on a range of materials including books, stationery and digital resources.

For full terms and conditions and to find out more, visit www.bcu.ac.uk/meetorbeat and www.bcu.ac.uk/15-credit

A STUDENT BANK ACCOUNT AND ALL THE PERKS THAT COME WITH IT

Before you start university it's recommended that you open a student bank account. These bank accounts are made especially for those in higher education. They operate similarly to a current account and come with many great benefits. These usually include 0% interest on overdrafts, freebies such as railcards and free access to Amazon Prime, and other discounts that could help you get hold of needed textbooks or just have a cheap meal out.

There are many options to choose from, and at first it may be a daunting task. Thankfully there are useful websites such as Money Saving Expert that breakdown the best student bank accounts on the market.

STUDENT DISCOUNT

As a uni student you'll be opening yourself up to a whole host of student discounts. Using discount cards such as Totum and websites like UniDays and Studentbeans, endless money-off opportunities await you. Everything from a new laptop or the latest games console, all the way down to a free burger - you can find deals on anything and everything.

Before making a purchase check to see if a student discount is on offer. Sign up to mailing lists and ask at store counters!

It's important to be responsible, spend wisely and make (and keep to) a budget when beginning university life. But it isn't all stress and worry when it comes to the pounds and pennies.

#1 WRITE DOWN YOUR FINANCIAL GOALS

MONEY MANTRAS

Not sure whether to fork out for something at uni? Use Martin Lewis' money mantras.

SKINT:

Ask yourself: do I need it? Can I afford it? Is it cheaper elsewhere?

NOT SKINT:

Ask yourself: will I use it? Is it worth it? Is it cheaper elsewhere?

#3 CREATE A BUDGET BEFORE YOU SPEND

A budget is telling your money where to go instead of wondering where it went.

TRACK ALL OF YOUR EXPENSES DURING THE MONTH

The best way to keep track of how much you're spending each month is to write everything down! You might think that £1.50 coffee is nothing, but if you buy one every day then it quickly adds up.

LEARN TO HAGGLE

Many places will give you a discount if you flash your student card. But even if they don't offer a student discount, why not ask for one?

PLAN AND FOLLOW YOUR REGULAR MONTHLY BILLS

When you are a student, there are some things you don't have to pay for. For example, student houses do not need to pay Council Tax.

TRACK YOUR PROGRESS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

Protect your identity: It is really important you key an eye on your sensitive information and take precautions to prevent fraud.

PART-TIME WORK

Think about getting a part-time job to supplement your income.

A part-time job is a great way to add something to your CV whilst still studying, as well as building your confidence, giving you new skills and the opportunity to meet people.
