CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS The University has a duty to ensure the safety and security of its students and staff. Please tick a box if either of the following statements applies to you:

I have a relevant criminal conviction that is not spent
I am serving a prison sentence for a relevant criminal conviction

Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and need not be disclosed. The definition of a relevant conviction is one for offences against the person, whether of a violent or sexual nature, or for offences involving unlawfully supplying controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking. Such a disclosure does not automatically exclude you from the application process but the University reserves the right to ask for further information about the conviction.

DISABILITIES Do you have any special needs? (Please tick). The information you provide will be treated confidentially and will not affect judgements concerning your academic suitability for a course. This information is requested for the purpose of considering any reasonable adjustments.
